

THE KUGLER SYSTEM

ESTATE CONCEPTS TECHNIQUE BOOK

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Review of Important Terms and Concepts

Chapter I: The Proposed Estate Strategy

Simple Will Arrangement (assuming Mr. Kugler Predeceases Mrs. Kugler)

The Credit Shelter (Bypass) Trust

The Life Insurance Trust Arrangement

The Marital QTIP Trust rather than Outright Marital Bequest

Structuring the Credit Shelter Trust as a “Dynasty Trust”

Utilizing the Estate Assets to Provide Income to the Surviving Spouse

Simple Will Arrangement (assuming Mrs. Kugler Predeceases)

The Credit Shelter (Bypass) Trust

The Life Insurance Trust Arrangement

The Marital QTIP Trust Rather Than Outright Marital Bequest

Structuring the Credit Shelter Trust as a “Dynasty Trust”

Utilizing the Estate Assets to Provide Income to the Surviving Spouse

Creating a New Asset to Help Fund the Payment of Estate Tax (Regardless of which Spouse Dies First)

Chapter II: Estate Concepts under Special Circumstances

Funding a Credit Shelter Trust to the Maximum State Death Tax Exemption or the Maximum Federal Estate Tax Exemption

Using a Lifetime Gift to Eliminate the State Estate Tax

Structuring a “Reverse QTIP Trust” to Maximize the GST Exemption

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 2

Using a Joint Revocable Trust to Fund a Credit Shelter Trust for the Married Estate Owner at the Death of the First Spouse to Die

Using a Revocable Trust Funded by the Spouse with a Larger Estate to Fund a Testamentary Credit Shelter Trust for the Spouse with a Smaller Estate

Strategies for the Payment of the Estate Tax for the Surviving Spouse with Children

Strategies for the Estate Owner with No Children

The Married Estate Owner with Children from a Previous Marriage

Providing for Two Different Families

Outright Bequest vs. Bequest via Trust Arrangement

Creating a Living Trust to Save Probate Fees

Too Much Joint Property and Problems Allocating Assets to Fund the Credit Shelter Trust

The Disclaimer Strategy

Special Use Valuation for Qualified Real Property

Strategies for the Special Needs Child

Installment Payment for Federal Estate Taxes (IRC Section 6166)

The Death-Time Estate Freeze via Corporate Recapitalization

Chapter III: Lifetime Gifts

The Advantage of a Tax Exclusive Tax (Gift Tax) versus a Tax Inclusive Tax (Estate Tax)

The Advantage of Lifetime Gifts

Paying Gift Taxes within Three Years of Death

The Majority Interest Gift Which Qualifies for the Minority Interest Discount

Maintain a Minority Interest Valuation Discount by Structuring the Estate Plan to Prevent the Aggregation of IRC Sections to Produce a Majority Business Interest

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 3

Lifetime Gift of Business to Enable Both Spouses to Obtain Minority Interest Discount

Gifting the Limited Partner Interest and Retaining the General Partner Interest

Gifting the Limited Partner (LP) Units and Retaining the General Partner (GP) Units until Death

Gift of GP Units and Subsequent Gift or Sale of the GP Unit within Three Years of Death

The Potential Negative Results of Gifting the LP Units via Gift Splitting and Retaining the GP Units until Death

The Potential Negative Results When Gift Splitting is Used for LP Units and the Consenting Spouse Dies First and the Surviving Spouse Subsequently Dies Owning GP Units

Gifting the General Partner Interest and Retaining the Limited Partner Interest

Having the Children Purchase the GP Units and the Parents Purchase the LP Units

The Uniform Gifts to Minors Act and the Donor Custodian

The Disadvantages of Gifting Capital Assets which Have Declined in Value

Gift Tax Exclusion for College Tuition or Medical Care

Gift Tax Exclusion for Medical and/or Long-Term Medical Care Insurance

Using a Section 529 Plan to Reduce Estate Taxes

Chapter IV: Deferred Gifts via GRATs

Analysis of the Long Term Maximum Annuity GRAT Calculations (Funded with a Discounted Income Producing Asset)

The Long Term Maximum Annuity Reversionary GRAT (Funded with Discounted Income Producing Asset)

The Long Term Maximum Annuity Term Certain GRAT (Funded with Discounted Income Producing Asset)

Structuring the GRAT Payout to Correlate to the Income Generated by the Asset Transferred to the GRAT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 4

Analysis of Short Term Maximum Annuity GRATs

The Short Term Maximum Annuity Term Certain GRAT (Funded with Non-Income Appreciating Asset)

Short Term Maximum Annuity Rolling GRAT – Level Contribution (Funded with Non-Income Appreciating Asset)

Short Term Maximum Annuity Rolling GRATs (Funded with Non-Income Appreciating Asset)

Funding Life Insurance Premiums via a Gift to a GRAT

Analysis of Short Term GRAT Comparison

The Advantage of the Short Term Rolling GRATs

The Advantage of Separate GRATs for Different Assets (where Applicable)

Reversionary Grantor Retained Annuity Trust

Structuring Long-Term GRAT to Provide an Increasing Annuity Payout

Using Life Insurance to Insure the Potential Economic Benefits of a Long-Term GRAT

Planning for the Potential GST tax if Child Dies During the GRAT Term

Chapter V: Deferred Gifts via Grantor Trusts

Sale / Gift of an Income Producing Asset to a Grantor Trust

Sale / Gift of a Non-Income Producing Asset to a Grantor Trust

Qualified Personal Residence Trust (QPRT)

The Minority Interest QPRT

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 5

The Qualified Personal Residence Trust and the Sale of the Residence and Rollover to a GRAT

Using a Grantor Trust as the Remainder Interest Beneficiary of a QPRT

Funding Life Insurance Premiums via a QPRT

The Non-Family Gift via a GRIT

Chapter VI: Generation-Skipping Transfers

A Unified Credit Gift to a GST Life Insurance Trust Utilizing Gift Splitting and Single Life Coverage

A Unified Credit Gift to a GST Life Insurance Trust Utilizing Gift Splitting and Survivorship Life Coverage

Limiting the Crummey Withdrawal Right to $5,000 for the Multiple Skip GST Life Insurance Trust

Using the Hanging Power of Appointment to Qualify a GST Gift for the Annual Exclusion

Qualifying for Both the Gift Tax Annual Exclusion and the GST Annual Exclusion via the “Direct Skip” Trust

Separate GST Life Insurance Trusts for Children and Grandchildren

The Predeceased Parent and the GST Problem for Irrevocable Life Insurance Trusts

Planning for the Potential GST Tax Problem if a Child Dies before the Parent when the Policy is owned by an ILIT

The Deflected Inheritance

Chapter VII: Charitable Gifts

Selecting Assets to Fund a Lifetime Charitable Gift

Charitable Remainder Unitrust

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 6

Charitable Remainder Annuity Trust

Term Certain Charitable Lead Annuity Trust (funded with a Non-Income Charitable Remainder Trust with Wealth Replacement Option)

Net Income Make-Up with Charitable Remainder Unitrust

Reversionary Charitable Lead Annuity Trust (Funded with Income Producing Asset)

Producing Appreciating Asset)

Funding Life Insurance Premiums via a Reversionary CLAT

The Charitable Short Term GRAT

Funding the Death-Time Charitable Gift with Life Insurance

Testamentary Charitable Remainder Trust (funded via Capital Asset)

Testamentary Charitable Lead Annuity Trust (for a Term Certain)

Private Charitable Foundations

Chapter VIII: Life Insurance Arrangements

Sale Rather than a Gift of a Life Insurance Policy to Avoid the Three-Year Rule

Split Dollar and Subsequent Rollout to Grantor Life Insurance Trust

Using a Credit Shelter (Bypass) Trust to Purchase Life Insurance on the Surviving Spouse

The Family Limited Partnership In Lieu of an Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust

Gifting the Limited Partner Interest to an ILIT (Grantor Trust)

Loan to an ILIT to Purchase Life Insurance

Funding Analysis of Various Methods to Pay Estate Settlement Costs

The Advantages of Using Life Insurance to Maximize the Use of Unified Credit and/or Annual Exclusion Gifts

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 7

Structuring an Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust to Purchase Your Co-Stockholder's Business Interest

Life Insurance In Lieu of a Direct Bequest to the Children in a Large Estate

Creating a New Asset to Cover the Growing Estate Tax

Maximizing the "Crummey Beneficiaries" and Dealing with the Non-Insured Spouse's Gift to the ILIT

The Crummey Withdrawal Right and the Hanging Power of Appointment

Chapter IX: Estate Strategies with Retirement Assets

Benefits Payable to a Surviving Spouse Via a Disclaimer (Credit Shelter) Trust

Benefits Payable to a Surviving Spouse via an Accumulation QTIP Trust

Benefits Payable to a Surviving Spouse via a Conduit QTIP Trust

Obtaining an Income Tax Deduction for the Estate Tax When An IRA is Paid to a CRAT for the Benefit of a Non-Spouse Beneficiary

The Purchase of Survivorship Life Insurance in a Qualified Profit Sharing Plan for Subsequent Transfer to an Irrevocable Life Insurance Trust

Utilizing a Qualified Retirement Plan to Enhance Your Estate Distribution

IRA Rollover to a Qualified Retirement Plan and Subsequent Purchase of Survivorship Life Insurance

Life Insurance to Pay Estate Tax on the Qualified Plan Death Benefit

Paying Estate Taxes on Qualified Retirement Plans and IRAs

The Advantage of Using Qualified Plan Assets or IRA's to Fund Charitable Bequests

Testamentary Charitable Remainder Trust (funded with Qualified Retirement Proceeds)

Utilizing the Surviving Estate Owner's Assets to Fund a Credit Shelter Trust for a Spouse that Predeceases with a Large IRA but Insufficient Other Assets to Fund a Credit Shelter Trust

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 8

Chapter X: Resident and Non-Resident Aliens

Estate Considerations for Resident and Non-Resident Aliens

QTIP vs. QDOT

Estate Transfer to a Non-Citizen Spouse

Using a Qualified Retirement Plan to Fund a Qualified Domestic Trust (QDOT)

A Lifetime Gift to a Non-Citizen Spouse

Chapter XI: Strategies for the Terminally Ill

Outright Gift of a Discounted Business Interest by a Terminally Ill Owner

The Gift to the Terminally Ill Spouse to Utilize Unified Credit and also Arrange for Basis Step-Up of Gifted Assets

Establishing an FLP with the Limited Partner Interest Owned by the Estate Owner that is in Poor Health

The Income Tax Advantage of a Terminally Ill Grantor Exchanging High Basis Assets for Low Basis Assets Owned by an Intentionally Defective Grantor Trust

Reversionary Charitable Lead Annuity Trust for the Unhealthy Grantor

Death Bed Strategies via IRA Conversion to a Roth IRA

Post-Mortem Strategies: Utilizing the Previously Taxed Property (PTP) Credit for the Terminally Ill Surviving Spouse

Self-Canceling Instrument Note (SCIN)

Private Annuity

Using Standard Mortality Tables for the Estate Owner with Less Than Standard Mortality

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page 9

Chapter XII: Strategies for Divorced Estate Owners

Spousal Survivor Benefit Rights under a Qualified Retirement Plan That is Subject to Minimum Funding Standards

Surviving Spouse's Elective Share Option

Non-Probate Assets in Situations Where There is a Pre-Nuptial Agreement

Structuring a Marital QTIP Trust for the Surviving Spouse and the ILIT for the Children of the Previous Marriage

Valuing a Surviving Spouse's Elective Share QTIP Trust Bequest

The Impact of the Increasing Unified Credit Exemption on the Amount Passing to A QTIP Trust

Planning for the Estate of a Younger Spouse and Older Children from a Previous Marriage

Using Trusts to Control the Ultimate Distribution of the Assets at the Death of the Surviving Spouse