

THE KUGLER SYSTEM -- VOLUME 1

A SUMMARY OF LIFE INSURANCE PRODUCTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS - 2009 EDITION

Disclosure Page

Introduction

Assumptions Used in This Text

Chapter I: Basic Forms of Term Insurance

Annual Renewable Term Insurance with Conversion Right

Guaranteed Level Term Insurance with Conversion Right

Decreasing Term Life Insurance with Conversion Right

Chapter II: Ordinary Whole Life Insurance

The Construction of an Ordinary Whole Life Insurance Policy

Using Dividends to Reduce Premiums

Using Dividends to Accumulate Cash

Using Dividends to Purchase Single Premium Paid-Up Additions

Using Paid-Up Dividend Additions and Future Dividends to Pay Policy Premiums

Failure of a Whole Life Policy to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration from Inception of Policy

Failure of a Whole Life Policy to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration after Crossover Year

Using Paid-up Additions Rider and Paid-Up Dividend Additions to Pay Future Premiums

Using a Lump Sum and Paid-up Additions Rider plus Dividends to Pay Future Premiums

Using the Additional Insurance (Fully Funded) Rider to Increase the Death Benefit

Using the Additional Insurance (Minimum Funded) Rider to Increase the Death Benefit

Using Additional Insurance Rider to Pay Policy Premiums

Failure of Additional Insurance Rider to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration from Inception of Policy

Failure of Additional Insurance Rider to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration after Crossover Year

Using a Lump Sum Premium and the Additional Insurance Rider to Pay Future Policy Premiums

Life Paid-Up at Age 65

Cash Value Build-Up

Using the Annual Renewable Term Rider and Converting the Rider in Future Years

Non-Participating Whole Life

Chapter III: Flexible Premium (Universal) Life Insurance

The Construction of a Flexible Premium Life Insurance Policy

Funding the Policy Value to Equal the Face Amount at Age 121

Minimum Funding to Maintain the Death Benefit to Age 121

The Difference between Funding to Preserve the Death Benefit and Funding the Cash Value to Equal Face Amount at Age 121

Advance Funding of Policy Values to Equal Face Amount and Pay Future Policy Charges

Advance Funding of Policy Values to Pay Future Policy Charges

Failure of Policy to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration from Inception of Policy

Failure of Policy to Perform in Accordance with Original Illustration after Crossover Year 86

Using a Supplemental Lump Sum Premium to Allow the Cash Value to Equal the Face Amount and Pay Future Charges

“Stop and Go” Funding

Providing a Death Benefit Equal to the Face Amount Plus the Cash Value (Option 2)

Using the Additional Term Life Insurance Rider to Increase the Death Benefit on a Fully Funded Flexible Premium Policy
Return of Premium Death Benefit Option
Adjustable Life Insurance and the Premium to Guarantee the Death Benefit
Adjustable Life with an Inflation Rider

Chapter IV: Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee of the Death Benefit

The Insured Attains Age 100 with Pure Life Insurance Protection Remaining Under an Existing (Older) Flexible Premium Policy
Withdrawal of Cash Value in a Flexible Premium Policy if the Insured Attains Age 100
Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee of the Death Benefit (Shadow Account Structure)
Limited Pay Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee (Shadow Account Structure)
Secondary Guarantee of the Death Benefit (Premium Account Structure)
Secondary Guarantee of the Death Benefit for a Specified Number of Years
Impact of Actual Policy Experience on the Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee Policy
Primary No-Lapse Guarantee vs. Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee (Policy Account vs. Shadow Account)
Primary No-Lapse Guarantee vs. Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee (Premium Comparison)
Guaranteed Death Benefit Design vs. Cash Accumulation Design Younger Age
Guaranteed Death Benefit Design vs. Cash Accumulation Design Older Age
A Two Tier Approach to Providing a Secondary Lifetime Guarantee of the Death Benefit
Determining the Revised No-Lapse Premium in Situations Where the Policyowner has Never Paid the Specified No-Lapse Premium
The Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee with a Cash Value Enhancement Rider
Utilizing the “Catch-Up” Option for Missed Premiums (Shadow Account Guarantee)
Utilizing the “Catch-Up” Option for Premiums Paid After the Specified Premium Date (Shadow Account Guarantee)
Utilizing the “Catch-Up” Option for Missed No-Lapse Premiums (Premium Based Guarantee)
Utilizing the “Catch-Up” Option for Premiums Paid After the Specified Premium Date (Premium Based Guarantee)
Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee with an Additional Account for Supplemental Premium Payments
IRR on Death (Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee Policy)
No Policy Provision Stating Amount of No-Lapse Premium to Guarantee the Death Benefit

Chapter V: Variable Life Insurance

The Construction of a Flexible Premium Variable Life Insurance Policy
Fixed Premium Variable Life with Guaranteed Death Benefit
Equity-Indexed Universal Life Insurance

Chapter VI: Survivorship Life Insurance

The Construction of a Survivorship Life Policy
Ordinary Survivorship Whole Life Design
Flexible Premium Survivorship Life Policy Design
Ordinary Survivorship Whole Life Design with a Cash Value Increase at the First Death
Survivorship Life with a First-To-Die Rider
Survivorship Life in a Non-Marital Business Situation
Joint and First-to-Die Life Insurance
Minimum Funding to Maintain the Survivorship Life Death Benefit in Early Years

Chapter VII: Definition of Life Insurance and Special Distribution Rules

The Primary Advantages and Disadvantages of Term, Ordinary, Flexible Premium, Secondary No-Lapse Guarantee and Variable Life Insurance
Qualification of a Contract as Life Insurance
Modified endowment contracts (MEC's)

Using Maximum Payments to the Paid-Up Insurance Rider to Enhance Ordinary whole life Cash Accumulation

Structuring Substantial Level Premiums to a Flexible Premium Policy (Cash Value Accumulation Test vs. Guideline Premium /Cash Value Corridor Test)

Structuring Maximum Premiums to a Flexible Premium Policy (Cash Value Accumulation Test vs. Guideline Premium/Cash Value Corridor Test)

Single Premium Ordinary Whole Life

Substantial Under-Payment of Guideline Premium May Prohibit Option to Adequately Fund the Policy in Future Years

Partial Surrender of an Ordinary Whole Life Policy with a Built-In Gain during the First Five Policy Years

Partial Surrender of a Flexible Premium Life Policy with a Built-In Gain during the First Five Policy Years

Fifteen-Year Force-Out Rule

Glossary

THE KUGLER SYSTEM – VOLUME 2

A SUMMARY OF LIFE INSURANCE APPLICATIONS AND TAX ASPECTS

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Disclosure Page

Introduction

Assumptions Used in This Text

Chapter I: Special Policy Considerations

Cost Indices for Cash Accumulation and Death Benefit

Increasing the Death Benefit for a Flexible Premium Life Policy

The Rapidly Deteriorating Flexible Premium Life Policy

Termination of an Ordinary Whole Life Policy Just Prior to the Anniversary Date

Ordinary Whole Life Insurance Dividends

Waiver of Premium – Ordinary Whole Life Policy

Waiver of Charges – Flexible Premium Policy

Ordinary Whole Life Policy Loans

Flexible Premium Policy Loans

Variable Life Policy Loans

The Automatic Premium Loan (APL) Payment Election and Non-Forfeiture Options for Ordinary Whole Life Policies

Accelerated Death Benefit and/or Long-Term Care Rider

Death Benefit Settlement Options

Chapter II: Tax Aspects

Tax Aspects of the Death Benefit Received by the Beneficiary

Tax Aspects of Lifetime Distributions from a Life Insurance Policy

Surrender of a Policy with a Gain and a Policy with a Loss in the Same Year

Partial Surrender of Policy Cash Value – Ordinary Whole Life Policy

Partial Withdrawal of Policy Cash Value – Flexible Premium Policy

Partial Surrender to Cost Basis

Determining Cost Basis on a Life Policy with a Term Rider

Partial Surrender of an Ordinary Whole Life Policy with Paid-Up Dividend Additions

Tax-Free Withdrawal of Paid-Up Dividend Additions to Fund College Tuition Payments

Income Tax Aspects When a Policy Lapses with a Loan Greater than Cost Basis

The Part Gift and Part Sale Result when Gifting a Policy with a Loan Greater than the Cost Basis

The Transfer-for-Value Rule

Determining the Gift Value on a Policy with a Secondary Death Benefit Guarantee

Gift Tax Valuation for a Life Insurance Gift

The Inadvertent Gift of Life Insurance Death Proceeds (Different Policyowner, Insured and Beneficiary)

The Purchase of a New Life Insurance Policy and the Three-Year Rule (IRC Section 2035)

The Life Insurance Death Benefit and the “C” Corporation Alternative Minimum Tax

Income Tax Aspects When a Policy Cash Value Equals Face Amount at Age 100

The Insured Attains Age 100 with Pure Life Insurance Protection Remaining under the Additional Insurance Rider

Transfer of Life Insurance under a Divorce Decree

Chapter III: IRC Section 1035 Exchanges

Tax-free Exchange under IRC Section 1035

IRC Section 1035 Exchange when the Existing Policy Does Not Have a Gain

Qualifying a Current and Deferred Policy Exchange under IRC Section 1035

Restructuring Policy Loans Prior to a Section 1035 Exchange

IRC Section 1035 Exchange via Carryover or Termination of Existing Loan
Tax Aspects of a Partial Surrender on a Section 1035 Exchange with a Built-In Gain to Extinguish a Policy Loan
Deferring the IRC Section 1035 Rollover to Prevent Current Income Taxation on a Partial Surrender
The Inadvertent Taxable Distribution on an IRC Section 1035 Policy Exchange
Exchange of an Older Flexible Premium Policy for a Secondary No- Lapse Premium Policy
Review of Life Insurance Policy Design and Amount to Determine if they are Consistent with the Estate Owner's Current Estate Objectives
An IRC Section 1035 Transfer of an Ordinary Life Policy That Is Paid-Up Via Non-Guaranteed Dividends
A Section 1035 Transfer of a Non-Participating Whole Life Policy to a Policy with a Secondary Death Benefit Guarantee
An IRC Section 1035 Exchange on an Ordinary Survivorship Life Policy that is Paid-Up via Non-Guaranteed Dividends
Implementing an IRC Section 1035 Exchange on a Survivorship Life Policy after One Insured Becomes Uninsurable
Implementing an IRC Section 1035 Transfer on a Survivorship Life Policy After the First Spouse has Died
A Section 1035 Exchange of an Ordinary Life Policy with an Additional Insurance Rider
Why It May Be Economically Viable to Carry Over the Policy Loan on an IRC Section 1035 Transfer
IRC Section 1035 Exchange of a Policy with an Outstanding Loan and Subsequent Partial Surrender of the Loan Amount
Implementing a Section 1035 Exchange to a Policy Designed to Provide Cash Accumulation and Retirement Benefits
Analysis of a Retirement Policy after the IRC Section 1035 Exchange
IRC Section 1035 Exchange of a MEC Policy with Outstanding Loan to Minimize Income Tax on Partial Surrender to Pay off Loan

Chapter IV: Life Insurance Product Applications and Uses

The Advantages of Using Policy Withdrawals and Subsequent Policy Loans to Provide Retirement Income
Review of the Ongoing Policy Illustration after Substantial Loans Have Been Taken from the Life Insurance Policy to Fund the Retirement Payout
The Advantage of Including the Overloan Protection Rider in Situations Where Life Insurance is used to Fund a Retirement Payout via Policy Withdrawals and Subsequent Policy Loans
Minimizing the Death Benefit in Situations where the Objective is to maximize the Policy Cash Accumulation and Subsequent Retirement Payout
Surrender to Cost Basis to Fund Supplemental Retirement Income
Using Life Insurance to Create an Estate
Using Life Insurance to Equalize the Estate Bequest
Paying Premiums on a Flexible Premium Policy When the Insured is Terminally Ill
Split Dollar Economic Benefit Arrangement (Employer Owns Policy Cash Value)
Split Dollar Economic Benefit Arrangement (Irrevocable Trust Owns Policy)
Split Dollar Loan Arrangement (Interest Not Paid on Premium Loan)
Split Dollar Loan Arrangement (Interest Paid on Premium Loan)
Split Dollar Life Insurance for the Owner of the Pass-Through Tax Entity
Paying the Term Cost via a Dividend under Split Dollar for a Sole Stockholder of a "C" Corporation
Private Split Dollar
Family Split Dollar
Premium Financing

Glossary